

“He who owns the battlefield dictates the terms of the battle!”

For centuries the serpent has successfully built on the strategy he first employed in the Garden of Eden to keep the Church confined to the “sinning fields” of the soul, the natural spheres of time and space, and the four walls of its buildings and facilities. In this resource manual for the worship, warrior son of God, Jim and Faith Chosa unveil this hidden strategy and promote a realignment of the Body of Christ to become true spiritual expressions of the Kingdom of God equipped to know how to authoritatively shift the battlefield from the soul to the spirit, from good and evil to life and death, and from darkness to light in the power of fully restored heavenly and earthly identity and destiny, and to take the battle for human souls to the enemy who has locked down communities, and territories by a vast power-grid network of evil legally linked into the Earth through the defiling works of humanity.

"I have waited eagerly for the release of “Thy Kingdom Come Thy Will Be Done In Earth” ever since I read the Jim Chosa's earlier teaching titled “Activate My Spiritual Heart, OH Lord!” This book is not a casual read, nor is for the baby Christian. This is real meat that will challenge your religious mindsets and traditions. If you are ready to move into a new understanding of your destiny as a true Warrior Son of God, then this book is for you."
