Breaking the Leviathan Conspiracy

Part Two: The Conspiracy of the Everlasting

Introduction

In Part One, we discussed the revelation of Covenant Ownership and concluded with the challenge that "God wants you to own Him!" As we continue to unlock the Leviathan Conspiracy, which is a high level religious deception, we must also bring forth the challenging revelation of eternal vs. everlasting. Apart from understanding this revelation, much of what is communicated as being "Christian" is really religious and man-centered. Without this revelation, we also never really understand how to appropriate the eternal promises of God as fully redeemed saints of the Kingdom of God and are continuously bound to a treadmill of doing and thinking rather than being and believing.

In the first part, we challenged you to lean on Holy Spirit teaching to help you understand several phrases from 1 Peter; these phrases are:

1. "you were redeemed from the empty way of life."
2. "your faith and hope are in God."
3. "you have been born again."
4. "You are not your own."
5. "You were bought with a price [purchased with a preciousness and paid for, made His own]."

Revealing the Eternal Life of God

We invite you again to review these phrases with Holy Spirit help; now look at the phrase "you were redeemed from the empty way of life." Keep this truth in your heart as we open this revelation on the "Conspiracy of the Everlasting." To break open this conspiracy, we must begin with unveiling the reality of the eternals of God and the world as originally created by God. To do this we must begin with these verses:

Gen 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called upon the name of the LORD, the Eternal God. NIV

Ps 119:89 Your word, O LORD, is eternal; it stands firm in the heavens . . . All your words are true; all your righteous laws are eternal. NIV

Focus on the word "eternal;" this word means no beginning no end. This means that God has no beginning and no end; the same is true for His Word. Now let's look at Genesis 1:3: And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. Eternal God by His eternal Word releases Light into a chaotic world. If this Light came out of the eternal Word, what kind of Light is released? The answer must be “Eternal Light.” Out of this Eternal Light, God creates all the other major elements of Creation; in this “Creation Equation,” we end, on the sixth day, with the creation of man. Again, we need to ask the question, what kind of man is created out of Eternal Light as God gathers eternal dust of the Earth and makes the natural body of man? And again, our answer must be “Eternal Man!”

Concealing the Eternal by the Everlasting

After this amazing week of creation, God rests; sometime later, the events recorded in Genesis 3 unfold. Many things happened at this time, but we must focus on the fundamental issue which moved God to reconfigure man and the whole Earth from its first eternal state. A creature enters the Earth through the body of an animal; hidden in this traumatic event is the basic nature of this creature and what he intended to do to man and the Earth.

This creature was first known as Lucifer, the archangel of worship around the Throne of God; he had this high place as a worship leader until he said in his heart “*I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High” (Isa 14:13-14, NKJV). Lucifer was an eternal being until self-centeredness that became self-idolatry entered his heart. At this point, the power of his eternal state became subject to his everlasting state yet upheld by his eternal state’s power and influence; this influence has had dramatic effect on the worship of man for God. This is why the EGO-pride of the Serpent is so powerful in the human frame to even resist the saving grace of God.

At this point, we need to define this new word “everlasting” which we have introduced since it is this state that even now clouds the heart, mind and soul of billions of people. The word, from its two syllables “ever” and “lasting,” helps us to understand its meaning. It means something which has a point of beginning (POB) with no end or something that lasts forever.

The Restoration of Eternal Life in the Light of the Eternal Word

The first place this word occurs in the Bible is Gen 9:16: And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth. It’s the Hebrew word “owlam” which means concealed, that is the vanishing point; generally, time out of mind past or future; practically, eternity. Depending on the context in which it is used it can be translated eternity or eternal or everlasting. Whenever sin or iniquity is the subject, this word should be “everlasting;” when speaking of God it should be translated “eternal.” In the verse above, this word should be “the eternal covenant between God and every living creature.”

The use of the word eternal or everlasting is clarified in the New Testament; the word eternal or everlasting is the same Greek word “aionios” meaning perpetual; also used of past time, or past and future as well; can be translated as either eternal or everlasting. It is used as eternal in Matt 19:16: And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? It is translated everlasting in Matt 18:8: Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

The King James Translation translates this word correctly more than most of the other translations yet it does make several key mistakes such as in John 6:47: Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. Note how the KJV uses the word “eternal” in John 6:54: Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

This is not a matter of semantics! This is a matter of unveiling this conspiracy of the everlasting! When I open my heart to Christ I receive eternal life not everlasting life! Why? Because the Life of God or the Life of Holy Spirit (Rom 8:9 AMP) is eternal! The Serpent, by a very clever sleight of hand, shifted Adam from his eternal state to his everlasting state. He has been building upon this most successful strategy for thousands of years and has set up the religions of the world to make sure humans remain confined to their everlasting state hoping they will never discover their true eternal state, the state that God gave the Life of the Son to redeem (to buy back).

The religious church has never really taught believers the eternal realm of God or how to live as eternal beings in eternal life. Why? This realm absolutely requires an intimate, real relationship and absolute reliance upon the Eternal Spirit of God, Holy Spirit. When believers awaken to their true eternal state as it was in the beginning and realize that the Life-giving Spirit of Jesus Christ, the last Adam, entered the Earth realm to rescue humans from their everlasting sin state and magnified their eternal state, they will begin to stand up in the power of Eternal God and throw off the chains of the everlasting EGO nature of the Serpent (the carnal flesh). The Serpent has tried to keep the lid on this revelation, but in this season of God’s revelatory Spirit hovering over the Body of Christ, this revelation can no longer be held in bondage to this deception of cleverly disguised everlasting life masquerading as eternal life.

We declare to every Blood-bought child of God: You are an amazing magnified eternal creature restored by the Eternal Life Blood of Christ to your first estate and now elevated high above this state to be seated with Christ in the Eternal Heaven of God on the Mercy Seat of God!

Please stay tuned because we will be opening up the significant implications of the contrast of eternal as opposed to everlasting and detail how eternal life always triumphs over any and all everlasting problems and issues; we will also show how the conspiracy of the everlasting was made the hidden power of the natural world and why the natural world becomes the primary resistance factor for the believer manifesting the full realm of eternal life.

We pray that Holy Spirit will teach you in the depths of your eternal being the revelations of this lesson through the Blood of the Cross, Jim and Faith Chosa

PS: This ministry depends on the Body of Christ for revenue contributions to achieve its mandate in Holy Spirit to equip the Body of Christ to become the worship-warriors of the Kingdom of God able to advance the Victory of Christ in every everlasting sphere as directed by Holy Spirit. Our promise of God for ministry provision is based on:

1 Cor 9:9 For in the Law of Moses it is written, You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the corn. Is it [only] for oxen that God cares? . . . 11 If we have sown [the seed of] spiritual good among you, [is it too] much if we reap from your material benefits? AMP

2 Cor 9:6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. 7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
